FINDINGS, CONCLUSIONS AND RECOMMENDATION OF THE UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

Pursuant to the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 636(b) and an order of the District Court, this case has been referred to the United States Magistrate Judge. The findings, conclusions and recommendation of the Magistrate Judge follow:

FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS

I. Parties

Plaintiff was incarcerated in the Dallas County Jail when he filed this complaint. He is proceeding pro se, and the Court has granted him permission to proceed in forma pauperis. Defendants is Police Officer David Conley.

II. Background

Plaintiff argues that Officer Conley violated his civil rights under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 when wrote a false report against him. He states Officer Conley falsely claimed that Petitioner committed aggravated assault of a public servant. Plaintiff seeks money damages and a dismissal of the charges.

III. Screening

Plaintiff's complaint is subject to preliminary screening under 28 U.S.C. § 1915A. That section provides in pertinent part:

The court shall review . . . as soon as practicable after docketing, a complaint in a civil action in which a prisoner seeks redress from a governmental entity or officer or employee of a governmental entity [and] [o]n review, the court shall identify cognizable claims or dismiss the complaint, or any portion of the complaint, if the complaint (1) is frivolous, malicious, or fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted; or (2) seeks monetary relief from a defendant who is immune from suit.

28 U.S.C. § 1915A(a) and (b); see also 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B) (“Notwithstanding any filing fee, or any portion thereof, that may have been paid, the court shall dismiss the case at any time if the court determines that . . . (B) the action or appeal—(I) is frivolous or malicious; (ii) fails to state a claim on which relief may be granted; or (iii) seeks monetary relief against a defendant who is immune from suit.”).

Both § 1915A(b) and § 1915(e)(2)(B) provide for sua sponte dismissal if the Court finds that the complaint is frivolous or fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted. A complaint is frivolous if it lacks an arguable basis in either law or fact. Neitzke v. Williams, 490 U.S. 319, 325 (1989). A complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted when it appears beyond doubt that the plaintiff can prove no set of facts in support of his claim that would entitle him to relief. Conley v. Gibson, 355 U.S. 41, 45-46 (1957).

IV. Discussion

Plaintiff claims Defendant falsely accused him of aggravated assault of a public servant. Dallas County court records show, however, that on December 20, 2008, Plaintiff pled guilty to the charge and was sentenced to eight years confinement. State of Texas v. Derrick DeWayne

Walker, No. F0800102-FQ, (204th Jud. Dist. Ct., Dallas County, Tex., Dec. 20, 2008).<sup>1</sup>

In Heck v. Humprey, 512 U.S. 477 (1994), the Supreme Court held that a § 1983 claim attacking the constitutionality of a conviction or imprisonment does not accrue until that conviction or sentence has been “reversed on direct appeal, expunged by executive order, declared invalid by a state tribunal authorized to make such determination, or called into question by a federal court’s issuance of a writ of habeas corpus.” Heck, 512 U.S. at 486-87. Heck also bars damage claims, which, if successful, would necessarily imply the invalidity of a conviction or pending charge. Hamilton v. Lyons, 74 F.3d 99, 103 (5th Cir. 1996).

Plaintiff’s claim for damages is clearly connected to the legality of his conviction. A finding in favor of Plaintiff would imply the invalidity of his conviction. Plaintiff, however, has not shown that his conviction has been reversed, expunged, or otherwise invalidated. Hence, no § 1983 cause of action has yet accrued and his complaint should be dismissed with prejudice until the Heck conditions are met. See Johnson v. McElveen, 101 F.3d 423, 424 (5th Cir. 1996) (stating dismissal should be with prejudice until Heck conditions are met).

RECOMMENDATION

The Court recommends that Plaintiff’s claims under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 be dismissed with prejudice until the Heck conditions are met.

Signed this 20th day of February, 2009.

PAUL D. STICKNEY
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE
